

NBE3C Exam Review

PART A:

You will be invited to read a nonfiction text and to answer questions about that text. There will be multiple choice and short answer questions. Make sure you use full sentence structure and paragraph structure for short answer responses.

To prepare for this, study:

- narrative point of view
- elements of style (reading word wall)
- rhetorical devices
- ethos, pathos, logos
- use of visuals for persuasion in media (mise en scene)
- Tone
- Paragraph structure (RACES)

PART B:

You will have a choice of two different prompts for the exam essay

- You will not have to use direct quotes - you can paraphrase (put specific examples in your own words). To prepare for this review what ALL THREE of your texts (Someday, Indian Horse, your ISU) taught about the effects of loss of sovereignty.
- Reflect on treaty education.
- Review characters (how both protagonists and supporting characters develop theme).

Part “A” – READING AND LITERATURE STUDIES PRACTICE

Suggested time: 75 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Carefully read the questions and then the essay entitled, “Protect Our Land: A Chiefs Perspective”, by Joyce Atcheson (10 minutes reading time)
2. Answer the multiple choice questions directly on this page. Answer all other questions on the lined paper provided.
3. Clearly number all of your answers.
4. Double-space all of your answers and write on one side of the lined paper.

MULTIPLE CHOICE (15 minutes)

Circle the most appropriate answer for each of the following:

1. This article is written in :
  - a) First person point of view
  - b) Third person limited point of view.
  - c) Third person omniscient (all-knowing) point of view.
  - d) Third person objective point of view.
2. Which of the following best describes the tone of the text?
  - a) Angry
  - b) Formal
  - c) Hopeful
  - d) Witty
3. The word “jurisdiction” most likely means:
  - a) an area of land
  - b) jury in court
  - c) the official power to make legal decisions
  - d) All of the above
4. What type of irony is the author using in the first paragraph?
  - a) Dramatic irony
  - b) Situational irony
  - c) Verbal irony
  - d) None of the above
5. Why are there quotation marks used on Page 90 in the last paragraph?
  - a) To show someone is speaking

- b) To indicate information quoted directly from a person's speech
- c) To show information was copied directly from a document
- d) All of the above

Short Answer Response: 50 minutes

Answer ALL of the following questions on the lined paper provided.

1. The author begins by saying the men were jailed for doing something they were elected to do. By whom were they elected and what were they elected to do?

2. Identify at least one example of ethos, pathos, and logos from this essay.

3. Why were the photos included in the article? Defend your answer using your understanding of persuasive media.

4. How does the information you read in this essay challenge or reflect your understanding of treaties?

5. Identify one literary device or rhetorical device used in this essay to persuade the audience. State the example and the quote where it is seen in the text, then explain why it is persuasive.

6. Why were the men jailed?